REVERSED AGAIN.

The Court of Appeals Gives Dr. Massie Another Chance.

The Court of Appeals, for the third time, reversed the decision of the Owen Circuit Court in the case of Dr. J. L. Massie, charged with the killing of Jesse Honaker, just over the Owen county line near Eminville, this county, several years ago. At each trial of the case at Owenton Massie was given a life sentence in the penitentiary and each time the Court of Appeals has reversed the action of the lower court on a technicality of law.

Massie has been confined in the jail in this city nearly ever since the crime was committed, only being taken to Owenton to stand his trial and then brought back here at its close. He was in comfortable circumstances at the beginning of the trouble, but attorney's fees and court costs have about taken up all his property and he will eventually leave the jail for the penitentiary or as a free man with not a dollar in the world. His attorneys, Hon. Evan E. Settle, of Owenton, and Hon. James Andrew Scott, of this city, have stood by him and made an uphill and energetic fight for him and have earned their fees by untiring efforts in his behalf.

Court Day.

A cold wave struck this section Monday morning and the keen March wind which blew all day very materially thinned out the court day crowd. Some stock, principally mules, was offered but few sales made. Master Commissioner W. H. Posey made the following sales of real estate:

The farm of Hon. E. H. Taylor, jr., one mile from this city on the Louisville pike, was sold to Mr. Taylor for $14,000.

The Walcutt farm, two miles from the city on the Versailles pike, known as "Windy Side," was bought by the Farmer's Bank for $11,000.

The farm of Hon. L. J. Cox, near Stedmantown, consisting of 498 acres, was sold to Mr. Isham Railey, of Woodford county, for $9,450, he holding a mortgage on the property for that amount.

A lot on Wapping street belonging to Mrs. Julia Proctor was sold to Major W. E. Bradley for $1,350.

Several small tracts of land in the county and several lots of ground on Arlington Heights were also sold to satisfy judgments, and in most cases were brought in by the plaintiffs to save their debts.

Horned by a Bull.

Mr. Wm. Jones ("Bud") went out into the field of his father-in-law, S. M. Noel, about a mile below the city, Saturday morning to feed some stock when he was attacked and knocked down by a bull. While the bull was attempting to gore him as he lay upon the ground Mr. Jones' hat was knocked some distance away by his struggles, which attracted the attention of the animal and while he went after it, Mr. Jones succeeded in escaping over a fence. Mr. Jones' head was cut and he was painfully bruised about the body but escaped serious injury. The bull had never shown signs of viciousness before and Mr. Jones was taken by surprise.

A Runaway on the West Side

Mr. Frederick Grinstead, son of Mr. R. L. Grinstead, was painfully injured in a runaway accident in Bellepoint Wednesday morning. In driving past the saw mill of Judge W. L. Pence, in a spring wagon, the horse he was driving became frightened and jumped to one side, breaking a shaft, which increased its fright and caused the animal to run away. To save himself Mr. Grinstead jumped from the wagon. An ugly gash was cut in his head and he was severely bruised up by the fall. He was taken to his home and his injuries attended to by Dr. S. E. James. The horse continued to run and the wagon was torn to pieces before it could be stopped.

Free Tuition.

We are authorized by the Principal to state that all who attend Elliott Institute at Kirksville, Ky., will be given tuition free during the year 1895. The Normal session opens April 1st and continues ten weeks. Board $2.75 per week. The summer session opens June 3d and continues ten weeks. Board $2.75 per week. Rev. Whitty Waldrop, a gentleman not unknown in this county, the principal of the school, one of the teachers is a graduate of two of the best schools in Virginia and the others experienced teachers from good Kentucky schools.

Bought Him a Home.

We learn from the Georgetown Times that Mr. Carlton Graham, formerly of this city, who has been agent of the Adams Express Company in that city for several years, has purchased a house and lot there known as the Bircher place, on Chambers avenue, paying $1,950 for the same. We are glad to see Carlton prospering, for a better boy never left Frankfort, and as he learned the "art preservative" in this office before going into the express business we shall always feel an interest in him.

The Modern Way

Commends itself to the well-informed, to do pleasantly and effectually what was formerly done in the crudest manner and disagreeably as well. To cleanse the system and break up colds, headaches and fevers without unpleasant after effects, use the delightful liquid laxative remedy Syrup of Figs.

Going In Rapidly.

The linemen of the East Tennessee Telephone Company have been constantly engaged for the past two weeks stretching the wires and putting in the new telephones ordered since the reduction in rates.

THE BAND PARADED.

Under the "Tactful" Permission of the Mayor and Got Into Trouble.

The colored band in this city paraded on Sunday afternoon, notwithstanding the city ordinance forbidding the same. Monday warrants sworn out by Officer Gordon against every member of the band and Tuesday they were arraigned in the police court, where the evidence was heard and the case postponed until Tuesday to give Hon. James Andrew Scott, their attorney, time to file a brief in the case, each of the defendants being required to give bond in the sum of fifty dollars for his appearance. So it seems that the mayor's attempt to set aside the ordinance passed by the council has gotten them into trouble. It appears to us these people were not treated fairly in the matter. They should have been told plainly when they applied for permission to parade that if they did so the law forbidding music on the streets on Sunday would be enforced against them and not allowed to go ahead, thinking they had been given the right to parade. The action of the Mayor served but to lead them into a trap and it will cost each member of the band $12.85, unless their fine is remitted by the council.

The lengthy resolutions of thanks to Mayor Julian passed by the Lodge of Colored Odd Fellows should be so amended as to read "for leading us to believe he could do that which he had no legal right, thereby getting the members of our band into trouble and causing them to be fined in the police court."

Pawed by a Horse.

Wilson Halleck, son of Jerry Halleck, the well-known colored man who has the contract for carrying the mails between the Post Office and the railroad stations, while at work Tuesday in Crutcher's blacksmith shop on Arlington Heights, was pawed by a young horse, his head being badly cut and his face bruised. His injuries were dressed by Dr. Alfred Hensley, and while painful they are not serious enough to prevent him from returning to work at once.

J. W. Fairbanks.

Postmaster at Mankato, Neb., writes us as follows: I have taken but one package of your Dr. Hale's Household Tea and it is the first medicine I have found that has done me any good. For 30 years I have been troubled with liver and kidney troubles, growing worse all the time. For the last 10 years I have not been able to do much or any work. I feel dull, sleepy and as though I could not stir. My bowels would not move oftener than once a week. After taking one package I am much better and now can take hold and work. Have a good appetite and bowels regular. For dyspepsia, constipation, all liver and kidney troubles, etc., it has no equal. Only 25c. and 50c. a package at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store. a

Sold His Home Also.

Mr. M. P. Gray has sold his house and lot on Lewis street for $3,800 to Mr. G. L. Hennen, who also bought Mr. Gray's hardware establishment last fall. Mr. Gray still adheres to his determination to remove to Louisville in the fall and go into business in that city, and the sale of his home is only another step in that direction.

Still Another Improvement.

Mr. J. G. McLean is laying the foundation for a handsome addition to his residence on the corner of Third and Steele streets. He will build a hall on the east side of the present building, raise the front to two stories and add several rooms. When complete it will be quite a handsome improvement to that part of town.

Where to Get Them.

This is the time of year to set out strawberry plants, grape vines, small fruits and fruit trees and if you want the best, and at the same time be sure you are getting what you pay for, send your order to H. F. Hillenmeyer at Lexington. His usual spring announcement appears in another column.

That Terrible Barbed Wire.

Mr. William Stopher, while at work near the river in the north end of town, on Tuesday, was so unfortunate as to slip and fall against a barbed wire fence, cutting his face so badly that a physician had to be called in to sew up the wound.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Sold by Druggists, price 75¢ per bottle.

Look Out for the Eclipse.

There will be a total eclipse of the moon to-morrow night, beginning about 8:11 and ending at 11:45. It will be visible here, so look out for it as you return home from church.

Constipation and sick headache positively cured by Japanese Liver Pellets, purely vegetable, small and mild. Fifty doses, 25 cents. J. W. Gayle, Sole Agent.

A Drop In Price.

The hens resumed business with the pleasant and the price of eggs has dropped from 25 cents this week to 10 and 15 cents this week.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Will Meet in Louisville May 29th.

The Republican State Central Committee met in Louisville on Wednesday and called a State Convention of the party to meet in that city on the 29th of May next to nominate candidates for all the State offices—from Governor down—to be filled at the next November election. An effort was made to have the convention meet here, but Louisville carried off the honor.

Another Improvement.

The Misses Robinson are erecting a two-story frame dwelling upon the lot on Conway street recently purchased by them from Mr. J. H. Williamson.

It's a Mistake

To neglect caring for a cough or cold. Every time you cough you increase the trouble and soon an inflammation is started that in a short time is difficult to control. Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure has such a magic effect upon a cough, allaying all irritation so quickly, that every person in the land should always have a bottle of this wonderful medicine on hand to begin taking at once upon the first appearance of a cold. It costs only 25c and 50c a bottle at P. H. CARPENTER'S drug store. a Itching, burning, scaly and crusty skin and scalps of infants cleansed and healed and quiet sleep restored by Johnson's Oriental Soap, medicinal and toilet, two large cakes, 25 cents. J. W. Gayle, Sole Agent.

At this stage he began using Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, applying it directly to the bunch inside his throat several times each day. A few weeks of this treatment entirely cured the bad throat and Mr. Wheeler states that it worked a most wonderful cure in his case and that he regards Dr. Hale's Household Ointment as the greatest medicine of the 19th century. #### Brass Sunday Music.

The advent of Brady's Band upon the streets on Sunday last, with circumstances attendant, seems to have started anew the discussion of two or more issues. One is involved in the question whether a law can be and cannot be at one and the same time. Upon this query the Mayor and Council appear to have assumed the affirmative. The Council declined to repeal the ordinance against brass bands playing on Sunday, but with a peculiar method of cultivating public respect for this law, "tacitly" gave Brady's corps to understand that the law would not be enforced. This is a dangerous attitude. It tends towards demoralization. The ordinance should be repealed, if it is not of a nature to prove beneficial to public order. Otherwise the result is a "reductio ad absurdum."

The Mayor has no power to suspend any law. He has less power in fact than any other citizen, for as Mayor his oath requires him to see that the laws are enforced, regardless of his opinion as to their propriety or constitutionality. He cannot even connive openly or secretly with the breaking of any law, but with that earnest and lofty inspiration that bespeaks the impartial chief officer, he must say "obey the laws that be or I will see that you are punished." He cannot daily with a condition of "now you see 'em and now you don't"

It may be admitted that the peculiar glamour of frailty and ghastly shadows that infested the law in its observance at the "Craw precinct," during the imbroglia of politicians, may have somewhat wrecked the sensitive mind of the Mayor and divided his susceptibilities touching the province of law, but with all that, one may reasonably hope that much of the mental fog may have cleared away and let in the sunlight of truth and duty. Still, this Brady business looks as if there be little hope that the Mayor has been touched with the balm of healing.

The next question involved in Brady's blare of trumpets is of an aesthetic nature. Some citizens agree there can be no great harm in a band playing on Sunday for proper purposes and at infrequent intervals. But it appears that Brady pursued the protective form of public leniency with the most constant urgency. It was with the unceasing constancy of the ardent lover. Week after week he and his cohorts kept up the routine of Sunday practice. Now, said these liberal souls, if Brady will quit practicing on Sunday and just play us some real music, we will never lend our influence to worry him with the intervention of law. And although they waited until their hearts were frantic with grief, Brady still kept up that eternal practice where one horn tried to out blow another and the drum tried to beat down both, until in sheer desperation these genial souls at last joined the fanatics and helped make the deadly ordinance that suppressed Brady and his band. So that at best or the worst, there is much of an aesthetic question in this matter of brass music on Sunday. The ear of Frankfort is a cultivated ear. Music is its passion. And Brady is not its idol—that is in the province of music.

But Brady has good reason to appeal to popular clemency in this troublesome cataclysm. He may well say, "we can't all be Mendelssohns or Gilmores or Librettis or even Sixtons, and whilst my music is not pregnant with the symphonies of the music of the spheres, it at least can stir some hearts." So that, perhaps, it may be well to give Brady a chance—he may have quit practicing and gone to real up and down hard playing. It may be that Brady holds his life in his hands, or better, on his lips; and we doubt whether it be wise policy to drive him to desperation.

An Eager and a Nipping Wind,

A continuous down pour of rain, inclement weather, generally in winter and spring, are unfavorable to all classes of invalids. But warmth and activity infused into the circulation counteracts these influences and interpose a defense against them. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, most thorough and effective of stomachics and tonics, not only enriches the blood but accelerates its circulation. For a chill, or premonitory symptoms of rheumatism and kidney complaint, particularly prevalent at these seasons it is the best possible remedy. It is also invaluable for dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation and nervousness. Never set out on a winter or spring journey without it. Elderly persons and the delicate and convalescent are greatly aided by it.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT

FRANKFORT, MARCH 9, 1895.

TOO MANY FOR US.

And Tenie Couldn't Tote the Baggage.

A committee of citizens went to Louisville Wednesday to try and induce the Republican Central Committee to call the State convention to meet in this city, but Louisville's influence was too great to be overcome and she won the day. Mr. M. P. Gray, who is ever ready to do all in his power to advance the interests of Frankfort, was spokesman for the party, and of him the Louisville Commercial said:

Mr. M. P. Gray, of Frankfort, was the first to speak in favor of his city. Speaking as the representative of the Franklin County Republican Committee and of the citizens of Frankfort, he invited the committee to select Frankfort as the place for holding the convention, assuring them a hearty welcome and the freest hospitality. Mr. Gray said that Frankfort would provide a place for holding the convention free of charge, and that as low a rate as that city would be made by the railroads as any other city could secure. Seating room for 2,400 people would be furnished. Referring to the certainty of Republican success in the November election, he said that one advantage that would be gained by holding the convention at Frankfort was that the candidates for the Senate and the Legislature would be able to select their seats as soon as nominated. In conclusion, Mr. Gray promised that if the convention was held in Frankfort the delegates would be royally entertained.

The Louisville Times said: "Frankfort's intentions were good, but Tenie Gray was not quite large enough to tote the baggage."

How To Be a Good Citizen.

The following notice is from the Corinth Independent of this week: In order to be a good citizen one should understand the Government under which he lives. The law of Kentucky should be taught in the public schools of this State. Each State has its own peculiar government and it is essential that every citizen should be familiar with the Commonwealth and county in which he lives.

Morton's Manual, a treatise on the principles of civil government in Kentucky was intended to be taught in the common schools of this State. It contains the duties of every officer of Kentucky from a road overseer to the President. It contains the revised constitution of Kentucky, which every body should know and understand. It contains a chapter on crimes and punishment which is not contained in any other book of similar character.

The book was written by Thos. B. Ford, a lawyer of experience, and the present clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court. The price is very low, and it should be in every Kentuckian's hands.

NO MORE SEED.

The Commissioner of Agriculture Has Completed the Distribution.

The annual distribution of garden seed has been completed by the Commissioner of Agriculture and his supply has been exhausted. Numerous applications for seed are still made daily at the office, which cannot be complied with, and if persons interested will remember that there are no seed there to be given away they may save themselves a walk up to the Commissioner's office.

Gen. Gordon's Lecture.

Of Gen. John B. Gordon, who lectures at the Opera House on Friday evening of next week, the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal says:

"Gen. Gordon is a born orator. His voice is rounded and full, his diction eloquent and graphic, his whole manner impressive. And for substance his lecture is based upon a wealth of scenes and incidents at once new and interesting in the extreme. No synopsis can convey the slightest idea of the superb lecture. It must be heard to be appreciated. He held his great audience in rapt attention. The lecture is a sensation. It is no partisan speech, but comes from a great, loving, loyal heart which knows how to renew its loyalty to the flag of the Union with increased devotion."

Special Missionary.

The First Christian Church of Winchester has made arrangements to support Dr. Macklin, who is now in China, as its special missionary. Dr. Macklin attended the State Meeting held in this city in August, '93, and lectured at the Christian Church on Mission Work. The Winchester Church is the only church of that denomination that alone supports a foreign missionary. The Presbyterian Church of Winchester and the Second Presbyterian Church of Louisville are the only two churches of that denomination that unaided support a missionary. It would be well for other churches to imitate the example of Winchester.

Y. M. C. A.

Every young man who expects to be an active member of the Young Men's Christian Association is urged to be at the meeting at the Baptist chapel Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, as a special effort is to be made in behalf of the association during the coming week, and the counsel of all who are interested in the work is desired.

Should be Heard by Every American.

The Louisville Courier-Journal says:

"General Gordon's great lecture ought to be heard by every young American. It is a masterpiece. Not only as a gem of oratory, but as a superb outburst of patriotism, will live long after we have passed away. The vast audience that heard him last night, will, we are sure, voice this expression."

At the Opera House next Friday evening.

Tried to Cover His Tracks.

A thief entered the room of Mrs. Sallie Greenhow at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Virginia Duval, on Steele street, Wednesday night, stole ten dollars and then set fire to the room. The flames were discovered and extinguished before any very great damage was done, and now the police are on the lookout for the scoundrel.

It would be well for young ladies to learn something of the origin and meaning of songs before they sing them.

Democrats seem to have lost their last vestige of courage. Now they want to eliminate silver from the State campaign for the benefit of the party. We say, stand upon principle, do something for the people even if the party goes to the devil. We are for no party which is afraid to meet the issues of the times.

Mr. Amelius Morancy has been mentioned as a candidate to represent Woodford in the next Legislature.

Our little city of Jett continues to improve. We have now, three stores, two blacksmith shops, both of which do wood work as well as smithing, a Bible house, large grain elevator, &c. One of our blacksmiths, Mr. C. S. Hackney, has a very just reputation of being about the best horseshoer in Kentucky.

Little Master Willie Fogg, after a long and painful illness, died on Thursday, February 27th. He bore his sufferings with patience and fortitude such as is seldom possessed by older persons. The little fellow was a general favorite, loved by all who knew him, and we to whom he was most dear, all desire to thank neighbors and friends for their many kindnesses, and generous sympathy in our bereavement. The mortal remains of our little man rest in the beautiful city of the dead at Frankfort, but thanks to the Christian faith, we know his spirit is happy with the angels in Heaven.

BULLDOFUS.
